

PEACE for Redlands

Redlands Police Department believes that lasting community relationships are rooted in mutual understanding and open communication. To foster this connection, RPD proudly offers the Police Education And Community Engagement (PEACE) Academy.

The PEACE Academy is designed to maintain strong relationships between residents and law enforcement through education, dialogue, and meaningful interaction. Participants will have the opportunity to meet local officers and gain insight into the department's structure, operations, and day-to-day responsibilities.
